PINK CHICKENS & PURPLE COWS?

Think your chicken looks a little pink? Or your brisket has a purple edge?

That's our smoke ring - a natural effect of authentic low 'n' slow barbecue. As the meat slowly cooks over wood smoke, a colourful ring forms just beneath the surface.
It's considered a prized attribute in the barbecue world & BBQ enthusiasts love it - because it's a sign of genuine smoked meat.

Don't worry! Every piece of meat is cooked to the correct temperature before it's served. The smoke ring is all about flavour & tradition - not whether the meat is cooked.
